Corina Weigl

Corina Weigl is a partner with Fasken Martineau. She is Co-Leader of the Private Client Service group. Her practice is focused on estate and family business succession planning. She develops customized strategies for wills, trusts, corporate re-organizations, estate administration, charities and not-for-profit law, and tools designed to protect a client's property, such as domestic contracts, Corina leverages legal and tax regimes to protect multi-jurisdictional property and family interests. Corina also represents fiduciaries and beneficiaries in judicial proceedings including will challenges, mental capacity matters, variation of trusts, applications for advice and direction and passing of fiduciary accounts.

Corina is Chair of STEP Toronto. She is the Current Chair of STEP Canada's 2021 National Conference, as well as a Member of STEP Canada Editorial Board. She is a member of the Professional Advisors Council of Sick Kids Hospital Foundation. Corina is Past-Chair of The Estate Planning Council of Toronto. She is the recipient of the Hoffstein Book Prize, a peer nominated award recognizing professional excellence and contribution to the Bar, as well as a Lexpert Zenith award for her pro bono work for SEDI. She has also received the OBA Law Foundation, Widdifield Award for her paper on The Prudent Investor Rule and Modern Portfolio Theory. She is also Chair of the Professional Development Committee (Ontario region) at Fasken.