Continuing Professional Development Accreditation List

Conference delegates can fulfil their STEP CPD requirements by attending sessions that are in line with their reflective development goals. The program is also designed to meet the continuing education requirements for provincial law societies, governing bodies, and professional associations by offering a maximum of 20.50 hours of substantive CPD. Accreditation for both substantive and where applicable professionalism is currently pending with regulating bodies.

Accreditation not necessary = Application for accreditation by STEP is not necessary, however verification of attendance is required for STEP to issue CPD attendance certificates.

All delegates are eligible to receive up to 20.50 hours. In order to receive CPD/CE credits for session(s), delegates participating:

- *In-person: will receive CPD/CE credits for sessions they attend throughout the days of the conference. New this year, all delegates will be scanned into concurrent sessions using a unique QR code on their name badges to verify attendance.
- Online on-demand viewing: must view the session(s) in full length and must complete the quiz at the end of the session. The completion of the quiz will indicate your request for CPD/CE credit(s) at the conclusion of each archived conference session.

*Included in the in-person registration fee is access to the online on-demand session viewing option that will be available on the conference app as of June 26. Additional CPD credits can be earned by watching sessions you did not attend during the in-person conference.
