

STEP Canada's TEP Brochures for Clients

The brochures below have been prepared by STEP Canada to assist members in promoting their specialized knowledge and services to clients. They are designed to inform clients on why and how they can best utilize the expertise of a Trust and Estate Practitioner (TEP).

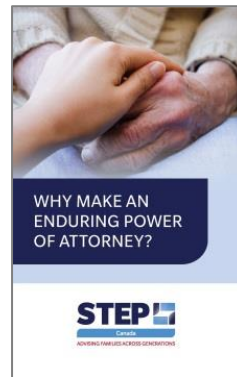

These brochures are made available to members of STEP Canada only, and can be purchased from the national office at cost price. Please note, prices do not include shipping and handling fees.

Why Choose a Professional with a TEP Designation?

This 4-page booklet outlines what a Trust and Estate Practitioner (TEP) is and does, as well as the many reasons why a client should choose to do business with one.

Price: $7.50/dozen + tax

Why Make an Enduring Power of Attorney?

This 4-page booklet reviews the role of an enduring power of attorney (EPA) and how to appoint one to safeguard your interests and act on your behalf if you become mentally incapable at a future date.

Price: $7.50/dozen + tax

Why Make a Trust?

This 16-page booklet reviews what a trust is, why to make one and the different types of trusts available.

Price: $13.00/dozen + tax

Why Make a Will?

This 4-page booklet outlines the advantages of making an efficient well-drawn will.

Price: $7.50/dozen + tax

Why the "Four C's" of Elder Law Are Important to You

This 8-page booklet outlines the "Four C's" of elder law, including client identification, conflicts of interest, confidentiality, and capacity.

Price: $9.00/dozen + tax

To place an order, please contact:

Member Services
Email: memberservices@step.ca
Phone: 416-491-4949 x 221/222
Toll-free: 1-877-991-4949 x 221/222

STEP Canada staff are continuing to work from home, and as such there may be a small delay in receiving your order. Please allow 2-3 weeks for delivery.

Please note, the pricing listed above does not include shipping and handling fees.