Why
UNICEF &
UNICEF Canada?

UNICEF is the world’s farthest-reaching humanitarian organization for children.

Across 190 countries and territories, and in the world’s toughest places, we provide and advocate for education, health and nutrition services. Protect children from violence and abuse. Bring clean water and sanitation to those in need. Keep them safe from climate change and disease. Serve as the world’s largest provider of vaccines. Before, during and after emergencies, we’re on the ground with life-saving help and hope. The needs of children around the world continue to increase and the role of UNICEF is more important than ever.

UNICEF Canada is one of 32 National Committees (NatComs) located in high-income countries around the world. Our team exists to fundraise for UNICEF’s highest priorities, and to work neutrally with governments and the private sector in Canada and internationally to advance the rights and well-being of children and youth.

As UNICEF Canada prepares to launch a bold new Strategic Plan in 2026, raising funds in support of children around the world will remain a key focus. Be part of this next phase of impact!

The Opportunity

As a key member of UNICEF Canada's Development team, the Senior Manager, Legacy Giving & Estate Administration leads the administration of the estates portfolio while also supporting broader legacy and planned gift strategies and activities.
